

THE PROPEL PROGRAM

empowering young women entrepreneurs

FALL 2020 PROPELLERS

NICOLE CUERVO
KELLOGG / MCCORMICK '22

PROJECT: SPRINGROSE

Springrose creates accessible, affordable, and attractive bras for older and mobility-impaired women.

THERESE SCHACHNER
MCCORMICK '21

PROJECT: NAME TBD

Mental health tracker mobile/web application that facilitates school administrations' monitoring of mental health among students and parents.

SAHITHI GANGAVARAPU
WEINBERG '23

PROJECT: DAILY DOSE NEWS

Daily Dose News aims to provide teens with informative global news in an accessible way while highlighting underreported stories and combating misinformation.

SHANNA TRAPHONER-LIU
KELLOGG / MCCORMICK '22

PROJECT: MYX

MYX is a mobile app service that streamlines and enhances the experience of splitting shared expenses.

BETTINA HUANG
MEDILL '23

PROJECT: HADA

Hada is an online marketplace for freelance services, designed to connect the expertise of college students to the needs of their community.

MOLLY VAN GORP
WEINBERG '24

PROJECT: NAME TBD

A lifestyle podcast series that is guaranteed to transform you from trendy to trend setting, arming you with a cultural aptitude unrivaled by the A-est of A-Listers.

ABBY PRATT
MCCORMICK '21

PROJECT: YOOME

Yoome is an app in the child-wellness space that promotes emotional intelligence and fosters the parent-child relationship.

SHERRY XUE
SoC '22

PROJECT: EXPLORATE

Explorate is a volunteering review platform that provides easier and more reliable search experience for volunteers and potential donors.

To learn more about Propel, visit:
thegarage.nu/propel